

TALENT
SHOWCASE

Giselli

Giselli was born in Espirito Santo one of the costal states of southeastern Brazil.

She came to Mumbai in 2008 after having traveled and worked extensively in Italy, Germany, France, Greece, Hong Kong, Singapore, Thailand and Philippines. She began her acting career in the Hindi Film industry, portraying the role of the contemporary Punjabi girl, Harleen Kaur, in Imtiaz Ali's Love Aaj Kal. There was rarely a fan or critic who was not taken with the innocent portrayal of the girl who saif woos in one half of half of the movie.

In 2010, Giselli appeared on the celebrated Brazilian television show, Fantastico, speaking about in her home in Mumbai and life in Bollywood.

She continues to believe that the sky is the limit if she gives Hindi cinema her best shot. For all the talk of crossover stars and of people trying to make it in Hollywood, one day in the future the world might recognize Giselli as one of the first true examples of a genuinely successful crossover actor.

She began her acting career in the Hindi Film Industry, portraying the role of the contemporary Punjabi girl, Hasleen Kaur, in Imtiaz Ali's Love Aaj Kal.

Inega was established in the early 90's when it began its first venture by producing the stage show, Grease Lightening. It then went on to sourcing international performance troupes for events in India. The company later pioneered a new ground in the fashion industry when it opened the first ever, International-Indian Modeling Agency in Mumbai.

As Inega crosses its fifteenth year, it continues to grow and now operates through three divisions representing; Models, Talent and Production. It has also distinguished itself as a preferred vendor for advertising agencies, production houses, photographers, motion pictures, magazines and other agencies worldwide.

Our mission is to continuously provide the best talent pool under one umbrella and to deliver optimum value to the companies that partner with us.

Inega's unwavering personal approach to models and clients provides a boutique agency feel that firmly maintains Inega's industry position both locally and internationally.
